Children of any age may receive a library card. To get your child started on a lifetime of learning just follow these simple steps.

- Bring in some identification showing your Middletown address (non-residents bring in your hometown library card) You’ll need:
  a) a driver’s license or State I.D. showing present Middletown address or
  b) 2 other documents showing name and present Middletown address, such as:
      rent receipt
      car registration
      check headings
      bills
      utility bills
      mail from an official institution (personal mail is not accepted)

- Fill out a library card application for your child at our Circulation Desk in the lobby

- Choose books and other materials to take home and enjoy with your child

- Visit the library often!
